

Travel Solutions

The university has contracted with two full-service designated travel agencies to provide prepaid airline tickets to university business travelers, as well as administer university airline discounts. This agency can also assist with making car, hotel and other travel reservations.

What are the benefits of booking through a designated travel agency?

- Around the clock business, offering customer support 24x7, 365 days a year
- Lower agency service fees
- Decreases traveler out-of-pocket expense
- Familiarity with university policies
- Products/services include (but not limited to) passport/visa assistance, general reservations and emergency assistance
- University airline discounts
- Assistance with group travel
- Email based communication available to all customers to include specific travel alerts, announcements and news
